PORTLAND, TUESDAY, MAY 18, 1886. GIVE HIM A LIFT.

Wi lie the temperance reformers are busy with the liquor law, what becomes of the trunk-ard? Is there much enthusiasm, much effort among the eloquent tinkerers of the statues to lend any other hand than that of the law to lift the deformed unreformed to their feet? The dirty work of the temperance cause does not all as many haloers as the ever occur men al work. To talk on the platform, to last legislatures, to hold temperance revivals, is rather enjoyable work for people with a turn for dramatic speech, and a relish for the riotors ety of reform agitation. But there is adoller kind of temperance work in whose vineyard the labours are always few. It is the dirly, disagreeable work of philambrony and charity; the greeable work of philanthrap and charity; the kind of work that compets the worker to com-into personal, private content with the failed brother or solled sister. It is the kind of work that requires a great heart rather than a foul voice, the beart fast Lowell described when alleding to Mrs. Child's capacity to tuck up her gow't and go this number the ditch to draw drowning fellow creature to dry land, he said

"Why deres to go in To the prison, the slave but; the alleys of sing And to Pring into each, or to find there should no Of the never completely out trampled divine. There are a great many moral reformers in the world, but the number that do any "dirty work" to right the falling or the fallen are very few. John Howard, Elizabeth Fry and Lydia Maria Child belonged to this small school of re-formers that did not dodge the drunkard in the ditch or the felon in his cell, to mount a platform and talk about the people in the puddle. They went down into the pool and became its healing angels. A man, who had once been an able editor and hilling stamp orator in Central New York took to drinking in 1844; in four years he was a bankrupt, and for the next sixteen years be was a gutter drunkard and tramp, with all the ter-rible degradation implied. At 50 years of age he was a casal driver, ragged and dirty lo 1864 this drunken tramp walked into the pr inco this grunden tramp whiked into the printing effice of Mr. Roberts, editor of the Utica.

Heroid, dirty and ragged beyond description, but sober, and said, "If you'll give me a chance l'Il reform." Mr. Roberts at once employed bim las a printer and then as proof-reader.

From that day he way a soberts are "Heroid that day he way a sobert are "Heroid that day he From that day he was a sober man. He was made a census marshal, then clerk of the assembly committee, then he was elected and reelected justice of the peace in Utica, and finally died at the age of 70, after seventeen years of temperate living, a respected and self-respecting man. Suppose Mr. Roberts had refused this man; Suppose Mr. Roberts had refused this dittyl degraded man; suppose he had dismissed him with a temperance address, the man who died h redeemed soid would have retreated back into his old haunts full of despair and ugly hate for the world and died the death of a dog, Ratved and hunted into hydrophobia. We say pect that the best workers for temperance are hose who have a warm hand of help for the weak when the drowning man is willing to sweak when the drowning man is willing to sweak for his life. Mr. Roberts did not urgo this man to dub himself a recent drunkard and hang the Lospital flag of a blue string from his buttenhole, because he knew that it is not good for any man to stand up in public meeting to all kinds and degrees of intelligence and tell the story of his sin, his shame and his suffering There is always dauger that such a man will gradually come to use his infamy to feed his love of notoriety and really lose rather than gain in moral strength and self-respect. A man can pray to God, or he can counte his story of shameful sorrow to the private our of an able and compassionate friend without becoming a mendramatic humbur, but the experiences of public meeting are always trying to those who consent to illuminate the occasion by the skillibily told tale of their past degradation. A few hen can do it and not deteriorate, but it is a diagracus experiment. Many a gifted fellow, who has honeally reformed, has been spailed by being encouraged to irradiate a public meeting with his eloquence rather than urged to take a back seat and go to work. If there were no charities but organized public philanthropy, the per would have a bard time: if there were temperance workers but the orotund or strient egitators of the platform, the number of referenced men would be comparatively few. It is the private kindness, the long-sudering pathe honest sympathy, the delicate generally, that helps but never tells, that works the greatest good in this world. If the past is bitter, it is better to put it behind Fou, to look forward and that the thing to be the come head to some head. not back, to lend your hand to some honest work, and leave the coaseless iteration of your ASPIRACIÓN VS. ABILITY. It is not pleasant for the people when they migh laws an eagle for a standard to be fobbed off with some old, solied political sotting hour or stritting, squawking beaches, as the cheat sign quader which to complete. No wonder when the people want a full man, with sumathing of the in site of a racer to blot, they are not con-tent with a brief and mule or a broken window family horset he wender the people sigh some-times for candidates whose fame is not a matter of din tradition, and whose neorable history there is no need to sunject by all lavits. There seems to be in every state a class of perty politi-cians who go riding a sent provided with a pocan wrong a troing a soft provided with a po-litical war map; they mark with red latters when Smith had conceiling, as a plea why Smithshould stand aside for Jones. The slate has no interest in this plotting for the field of possible: the state has no interest rays the best strated. It South the position of the field of position the state has no atomet rave the near service. If Spath, by internal and acquired ability and worth, easily show the hold of the table, buty should be supposed and entered surregies he seal to some testions and now-ward flown who thinks be would like it. There sugging be no "term" about it, save when a mandar coursers titles of stillity and services man dan compare titles of ability and service man can compare titles of ability and service with his peers and take his seat by force of high-mounting merit. The "survival of the fittest" should be the answer to the question who should be the candidate. It is not fairly a question of aspiration at all, for an imbedie might ask for the apples of Hesperides or a crown of diamonds to play with: htstairly only a question of ability; the best men should be in all places of public trust, no matter whether they have been crowned with public confidence before or not. Retire the feeble; put the stal-wart p the front, and promote no man on the stopid plea that he wants to be promoted becausait is "bis turn to have something." It is this stupid theory of politics and public trusts that periodically puts sleek and snig mediocrity in power, that makes a largain and sale, a booty and beauty, lool and galoot mess of our politics.

The average voter knows the difference between aspiration and ability, and yet frequently, out of pure good nature, he prefers the silty peacock of aspiration to the strong-winged, sun-training eagle of ability. It is poor policy; if there is no sound reason why a man should be nomicated for a responsible public office save that its wants it and that "it is his turn," he would better be left at home. Party convenience. tions have become little better than a political "bastet lunch" party, where bummers and blow-hards assemble to ventilate their arrogat-

The public business needs men who do not find it necessary to offer affidavits to the rown personal ability and worth; the public business out ht to be out in charge of conspicuous character, despite the whippering protest of illustrious consumings who think "it is that turn." It is noted a turn; it is always the turn of men of om nence for ability and worth that have littled them into the rank of conspicuous citizens. The moral and mental vision of the "ring" leaders in both parties has become too dull to recognize any ob-ligations of public equity and integest in such matters. Their exchight was never very clear but it deteriorates so rapidit of recent years as to recall the story of Jie man who asked the op-tician, "What quinter must I wear after these spectacles cease to be strong another one," showing him shother pair, "A that?" THE APACHE SUNT.

An officer of the army now serving in this de-partment has received a printle letter from General Crook, in which has speaks very fully of his recent campaign in Arzena. Gen. Brook says that the stories reported all over the coun-try to the effect that, Geropino surfundered and afterward escaped are positively untrue, Georgian and a conference with the boat care Crook held a conference with the hosties at which it was agreed that both he (Crook) and Geronimo should proceed to Fort Bowie each with his separate independent command, for further consultation. The agreement was in the nature of a truce, Geroninio being quite is dependent as Crook. Later, the bulk of Geronino's band succendered at Boyrig, but previous to the surrender the old chief with a few chosen men, nineteen or two ty all toll, left the carps and butch the chief with a eff the camp and spught their Md ranges. In this matter, there was no breaking of faith on Gerenimo's part no lick of bravers or capacity on the part of Lieut. Mans, who, according to the reports, permitted the band to escape.

THE RIVER AND HARROW BILL

More and more it looks as if the liver and batter appropriation bill were this year to fall again. It has been fought at every stage, and now its enemier, despairing of celeating it dinow as entermer, desparing of referring it di-rectly, are leading it up with objection the fea-tures in the hope of making it offensive to the president. At Washington it is now considered almost certain that it will pass the secute and that the president will reto it; nnil! he does it is not likely to pass the house again. The vote by which it passed that body two weeks ago was not sufficient to early it over a valo, nor even closely approaching the requised two-thires. It is notable, too, that all the leaders of both parties are opposed to the bill, an time witle it has something more than a majority it has no a single strong promoter who could bring suppoint to it in a contest.

There is some ground for hope pert, but it is small. The session is now so far along that there will be no time. I the bill system to modify it to meet the president so bjections.

To is was the situation three pears ago, it will be remembered. Since the failure at that time failed to impress the view and better that time failed to impress the view and better that the falled to impress the river and harbor comer itse to basten with its wors, it is not likely that a second experience will to any good.

If the president were in the habit of calculating political considerations, ther would some reason to expect him to wa to his o jections and approve the bl.l. A veto will subject him to the wrath of all the states has been own which are interested in his measure, but he is likely to disregard this fact.

Home Rule Debate in the House

THE OPPOSITION INCREASING.

Birth of a King at Madrid-King Ludwig of Bavaris to Abdicate Beigure of Another

London, May II.—Debate on the home rule bill was continued in the house of commons to-night. Sir Richard Asheton Cross, conservative, was the first speaker. He said that the bill would not secure good government for Ireland. If it were passed there would be two sets of pages in Ireland; one set would administer justice in revenue cases; and the other would administer justice in criminal cases. The former would be protested by the imperial parliament, and the other would be left to the tender mercies of the Hish people. Mr. Gladstone had said the union was effected by bribery, but the premier himself was offering a large bribe of £50,000,000 to Ireland, and this was not the first time that he had offered a bribe. Parliament, the speaker continued, would cease to be imperial if Irish members were not retained. He believed that by firm and judicious administration of the law, and by the government's showing its rendiness to consider instructures, the Irish would in time see, as the Foolch had already seen in their case, that it was 16 the interest of Ireland to remain united with England, and to maintain the supremacy of the large parliament.

In James Standbeld, president of the local government and parliament. section, and to maintain the supremacy of the baperdia partitioners.

Mr. James Stansfield, president of the local government board, said that the conservatives had ropounded a policy for governing Iroland "resolutely" means." (Cheers.) He believed in resolutely "means." (Cheers.) He believed in rish nationality, and he thought that to satisfy the Fish was their only way to cheet a lasting moral blood of Enclard and throught that to satisfy the Fish was their of Factard and throught that to satisfy the Fish was their of Factard and throught that is presented a Station for the granting of home rule to freiand. But the partition was signed by 105388 Soutchmen. It as one and a quarter miles long, and weighed 174 counts, and was borned into the house on the boulders of stativart attendants.

On motion of Mr. Shaw Leiever, liberal, the de-shoulders of statwart ittendants. JOn motion of Mr. Shaw Leievre, liberal, the de-liate was adjourned until to-morrow. Br. John Hright was present at the session to-night. It is reported liat he will submit a motion which will be acceptable to the government, postpoulng con-aderation of the home rule question. It is believed taat Mr. Bright has written to Mr. Gladstone that unless the bill is withdrawn he will speak and vote against it.

Ministerialists say that in the event of the bill bemajor arried by a small radjority, or being defeated by a small radjority, parliament will be dissolved and if the majority against the bill reaches forty the ministry will resign. Mr. Chamberjain declines before the concessions desired by him, on the ground that the Gladstein committee already knows them.

A HIGHLY IMPROBABLE STORY.

INEW VORK, May IT.-James O'Kelly cables from London to the He cold: "Last night a radical from London to the He cold: "Last night a radical from London to the He cold: "Last night a radical from the long tradical and liberal members, saying privately: "Why should we concede home rule to Parmell? Dynamiters are on his track, and sooner or later they will kill him. Then the nationalist party will break up and the demand for home rule will cease." It is certain that Chamberlain bases his hopes of defeating the claims of Ireland to legislative independence on the disappearance of Parmell or the disruption of the Irish party through Internal divisions." COMMERCIAL.

MONDAY, May 17. Weather clear and warm. Jobbers are quite busy to-day tilling orders and trade opens active enough with the new calendar week. William Kerron, general neer-knodise dealer, assigned to-day. His habilities are about $7:,000, and after a secured c,aim of about $23,000 is paid, it is thought creditors will realize all of 75 coats on the dollar. This is the high vitest fatture here in many years. It is not due so mucil o late operations as to old business. The product lines show no marked value changes, and the markets, while not duil, furnish little of new interest.

Overland receipts include 5 cs sardines, 15 sks seed, 112 kay soap, 15 cs 196, 8 cs cigars, 150 brs 200 seed, II2 fixs soap, 15 es lye. 8 es eigars, 150 bis 200 outts tobacco 85 bills trunks, 700 es candles, 31 bixs 209 bbls g assware, 2 cs hats, 32 cs boots and shoes, 3 bbls 3 cs paint, 290 sks sulphur, car buggies, 2 cars

3 bbis 3 cs ps ut, 290 sks sulphur, car buggies, 2 cars wire mattresses, 2 cars implements.
PRODI CE RECEIPTS—Past is hours: 522 ctls wheat, 345 bb a foor, 821 ctls oats, 25 ctls barley, 28 ctls branch, 24 ctls milistiff, 113 sks potables, 450 hs wool, 523 bb hides, 303 bb hops, 121 cs aggs, 5 pkgs baller, 24 fcgs, 35 cattle. Also 15-00 ctls wheat, 200 bbs flour, 146,320 lbs wool, 1565 ins hides, 18 cattle from the 2 istern section.
PRENGHYN—Market inactive. The River Nith iron, and Edward Kidder, wood, arriver open, frances fisher and Sterlingshire are down river, the Shallingar salling to-day. This leaves out six vessels, 61 cs of corr tons register, in loading larth here. The spot disposable list is six iron, of 664 tons, and two wood of 123 tons. At 13 an Franceiso four large wooden a the closed at 13 a fat for ordiners. four large wooden sulps closed at 319 3d for orders. Coast ton age figures are not materially changed

Coast tongage lightes are not materially changed from a weak ago.

WHEAT—Foreign markets present not ling of the interest, offerings of dargoes soon to arrive are few and buyers are backward about en, aging distant orles, [Chicago and New York are generally weak, as also is son Francisco. Here the ismail business done furnishes nothing new as regards prices, and transactions are not frequent.

OATS—Good materione and market from the both head and ship and account. Prices per rain applied for a pragin.

POTATOES We need at the moment, some PUTATIOES - Whitted at the moment, so he dealers having orders in excess of supply. Paying prices are 602.700 per sack for a good quality. It is expected that this finate will bring in a supply. ONIONS - Very few Oregon to be had. Usilidenia sends a few red but they are not firm. Edicis—Receipts past two days have been onthe free but sold up close and to day stocks are not farge. Onto 15c.

PUCLITRY - 61d shears irregular at 62.5523.

Ducks sell quiters of silvy at $567.

WOOL—The lips to Commercial Bulletin of the first, says: The market continues dult, flat a non-interpestin. This presence of a number of Puladelphia dealers tyring to dispose of their woul has not tended to Improve prices. The market has uet tended to improve prices. The market has been floored with agents of Landon brokers seek-ing orders for foreign woots. Sales for a week tave beer 1.455.500 pounds, a very small total, and have been 1.455.50 pounds, a very small total, and that its zero points of it domestic. The decrease in sales since the first of January as compared with the transaction for the same time last year now amounts to 17.651.213 pounds. The strike of the clothiers in this lit, has paralyzed the lost movement in woolen go des, and there are a number of cancellations of orders although their, amount has been over rather than underestinated. It should be remembered, however, that the orders canceled are not for suring out for fall goods. The spring trade in clothing is now practically at an end. It has been expected agily prosperous. There seems to be little doubt that manufacturers are generally with the descript of wool. Threatened almost daily with the descript of wool. Threatened almost daily with the descript of wool which a forthight's strike would renderishen anable to meet. When these manufacturers all begin to buy, a brisker trade would renderishen anable to meet. When these manufacturers all begin to buy, a brisker trade will of colors result, but it is tell to prophesy the date of the term mation of the labor differnities. In the meantime by these is very duil, strikes continue and the extreme stiffness with which growers are holding for an advance over last your figures, gives in the times of a long, hard-longit pure assisting season. The drop in California fall wool has thered in 4.67 fee. last sixty days. Wools held there at 57@583 clean are row oltered at 47@48c.
